

Alzheimer's from A to Z: Memory Loss, Dementia, and the Basics of Alzheimer's Disease

Satellite Webcast

Social Work CEU Quiz

February 2, 2017

(Select only the one best answer)

1. Dementia is the loss of cognitive functioning serious enough to interfere with daily function and can cause changes in:
 - A) Memory
 - B) Language
 - C) Navigation
 - D) Personality/Mood
 - E) All of the above

2. Reversible diseases that mimic dementia include:
 - A) Emotional disorders
 - B) Brain tumors
 - C) Dehydration
 - D) Alcohol, drugs and medication interactions
 - E) All of the above

3. The most common form of dementia that has no cure and is eventually fatal.
 - A) Vascular dementia
 - B) Dementia with Lewy bodies
 - C) Alzheimer's
 - D) Creutzfeldt-Jakob disease

4. In the Late Stage (Severe Alzheimer's) recent memory loss is first evident
 - A) True
 - B) False

Name: _____

Address: _____ City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Phone #: _____ Email: _____