County health departments have been assessing the food and lodging establishments within their counties for operation and damage since Hurricane Ivan made landfall Thursday.

Food establishments are being inspected for sanitary operating procedures as power is being restored to areas of the county.

If a food or lodging establishment has any questions concerning their opening after electrical power has been restored, food disposal or any other questions regarding issues with food safety, please call the Bureau of Environmental Services of the Alabama Department of Public Health in Montgomery at (334) 206-5375.
